MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

A. The Commission hereby retains and reserves unto itself, without limitation, all powers, rights, authority, duties, and responsibilities conferred upon and vested in it prior to the signing of this Agreement by the laws and Constitutions of the State of New Jersey and of the United States, including but without limiting the following rights:

1. The executive management and administrative control of the Commission, its properties, facilities, and activities of its employees, using personnel methods and means of the most appropriate and efficient manner possible.

2. To make rules of procedure and conduct; to use improved method and equipment; to determine work schedules and shifts, as well as duties; to decide the number of employees needed for any particular time; and to be in sole charge of the quality and quantity of the work required. The Commission agrees to give notice to the employees of the rules and procedures issued.

In the event the Commission considers or decides to contract out or privatize a job function or department for fiscal, economic or policy reasons which results in a reduction in force, the Commission agrees to give the Union thirty (30) days notice prior to the date of the anticipated contracting date. Upon the request of the Union, the Commission will meet with the union to discuss and hear the Union's position. The Commission will also give the Union the opportunity to demonstrate that bargaining unit employees can perform the anticipated contract work more efficiently and cost effectively than a private contractor. The Commission will provide the Union with relevant cost information and any public documents concerning the bid proposal.

8. To lay off employees in the event of lack of funds or under conditions where continuation of such work would be inefficient and nonproductive.

D. The parties recognize that the exercise of managerial rights is a responsibility of the Commission on behalf of the taxpayers and that the Commission cannot bargain away or eliminate any of its managerial rights. No grievance may proceed beyond Step Two herein unless it constitutes a controversy arising over the application or alleged violation of negotiable terms and conditions of employment in this contract.

ARTICLE II

NO STRIKE

A. The Union hereby agrees that, during the term of this Agreement, neither the Union nor its members will cause, authorize, or support, take part in any strike (i.e., the concerted failure to report for duty or willful absence of any employee from his/her position, or stoppage of work, or work stoppage, walk-out, or other illegal job action against the Commission. C. In consideration of Union commitment in this article the Commission will not lock out its employees.

D. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to limit or restrict the Commission or the Union in its right to seek and obtain such judicial relief as it may be entitled to have in law or in equity for injunction or damages, or both, in the event of a breach by Union members or the Commission.

ARTICLE III
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. The purpose of this procedure is to secure, at the lowest possible level, an equitable solution to problems which may arise affecting the terms and conditions of employment under this Agreement.

B. Nothing herein shall be construed to limit the right of any employee with a grievance to discuss the matter informally with the appropriate member of management or the Human Resources Specialist. The employee reserves the right to have a Union representative present. Nothing contained herein shall prohibit the parties from raising a timeliness argument under this Article.

C. With regard to employee, the term "grievance" as used herein means an appeal by an individual employee or group of employees from the interpretation, application, or violation of the terms and conditions of this Agreement only. With regard to the Commission, the term "grievance" as used herein means a complaint or controversy of the negotiable terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Inequitable, improper, unjust application or misinterpretation of rules or regulations, existing policy, or orders applicable to the Commission, which shall be processed up to and including Step 2 of this Article, shall hereinafter be referred to as a "non-contractual grievance".

D. The following constitutes the sole and exclusive method for resolving grievances between the parties covered by this Agreement, and shall be followed in its entirety unless any step is waived by mutual consent:

Step One: The Union shall institute written action under the provisions hereof within seven (7) working days after the event giving rise that the grievance has occurred, and an earnest effort shall be made to settle the differences between the aggrieved employee and the Program Director/Division Manager for the purpose of resolving the matter informally. The written grievance at this step will be filed with the Human Resources Specialist and shall contain the relevant facts and a summary of any preceding oral discussion, the applicable section of this Agreement violated, and the remedy requested by the grievant. The Human Resources Specialist or designee will answer the grievance in writing within ten (10) working days of receipt of the written grievance and will then supply the answer to grievant and Union.

Step Two: If the Union wishes to appeal the decision of the Program Director/Division Manager, such appeal shall be presented in writing to the Executive Director within seven (7) working days thereafter. This presentation shall include copies of all previous correspondence relating to the matter in dispute. The Executive Director shall respond, in writing, to the grievance within twenty (20) working days of the submission.

E. Upon prior notice and authorization of the Program Director/Division Manager, the designated Union representative shall be permitted to confer with employees and the Commission on specific grievances in accordance with the grievance procedure set forth herein during work hours of employees, without loss of pay, provided that the conduct of the business does not diminish the effectiveness of the Employer or require the recall of off-duty employees.

F. The time limits expressed herein shall be strictly adhered to. If any grievance has not been initiated within the time limit specified, then the grievance shall be deemed to have been abandoned. If the grievance is not processed to the next succeeding step in the grievance procedure within the time limit prescribed thereunder, then the disposition of the grievance at the last preceding step shall be conclusive. If a decision is not rendered within the time limits prescribed for decision at any step in the grievance procedure, then the grievance shall be deemed to have been denied. Nothing herein shall prevent the parties from mutually agreeing to extend or contract the time limits for proceeding with the grievance at any step in the grievance procedure.

G. Reasonable disclosure will not be withheld involving any correspondence from either party, provided it directly relates to the party or parties involved in the grievance, and directly relates to the grievance itself.

Step Three: Within twenty (20) days, exclusive of designated holidays, Saturdays and Sundays the Union may appeal the decision of the Executive Director to the Public Employment Relations Commission ("PERC") for binding arbitration. Only alleged violations of this agreement may be submitted to arbitration. The selection of an arbitrator shall be in accordance with the rules and procedures of the PERC. Simultaneous with the application to the PERC, the Union will send notice to the Employer with the arbitration petition.

a. The decision of the arbitrator shall be in writing and shall include the reasons for such decision. The decision of the arbitrator shall be binding on the Employer, the Union and the employee. The parties may direct the arbitrator to decide, as a preliminary question whether he or she has jurisdiction to hear the matter in dispute. The arbitrator shall be bound by provisions of this agreement under the constitution of the laws of the State of New Jersey and be restricted to the application of the facts presented to him/her involved in the grievance. The arbitrator shall have no authority to add, modify, or to detract from in any way the provisions of this agreement or any amendment or supplement thereof. The cost for the services of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Union and the Employer. Any other expenses including, but not limited to, presentation of witnesses shall be paid by the parties incurring the same.

Work performed by a non-exempt employee between thirty-five (35) and forty (40) hours per week will be paid on an hour for hour basis in pay or compensatory time as determined by the supervisor. Hours of work shall be as defined under the FLSA. The work week for employees will begin at 12:01 a.m. on Saturday and end at midnight the following Friday and shall consist of 35 working hours. Full-time employees shall not be paid overtime until said employees have worked the hours specified above. Approved holiday, administrative time, sick time and vacation time will be counted as hours worked in the calculation of overtime.

B. Overtime and compensatory work will be kept to a minimum and must be authorized in advance consistent with the rules and regulations of the Commission.

C. Non-exempt employees must use all compensatory time by the end of the calendar year in which it is earned unless the Executive Director determines that it can not be used due to work load in which case it shall be carried forward to the next calendar year and be used within 3 months.

D. Working hours of employees will be arranged to fit Commission needs. There is no guarantee of overtime hours beyond the normal work week. Employees will be required to work reasonable overtime when the necessities of the Commission demand such work. In administering the requirement to work overtime, the Commission will make an effort to excuse employees who have personal commitments. This will not reduce the employee's obligation to work overtime when assigned.

E. Salaried employees occupying exempt positions do not qualify for compensatory time or overtime pay for work beyond their normal work week.

F. However, the Executive Director or his/her designee may at his/her discretion grant an exempt employee absent with pay leave or flexible work patterns in cases where an employee has been required to work particularly unusual hours or excessive periods of time.

ARTICLE VI
VACATION LEAVE

A. All full time, continuing employees earn vacation leave according to the following schedule. Part time, continuing employees who are scheduled to work 20 or more hours per week can earn vacation leave on a proportionate basis. Until employees earn that leave, it will be considered to be advanced and unearned. New employees will not vest in any earned vacation leave until after six (6) consecutive months of employment. Employees may carry over up to 30 accumulated vacation days into the next calendar year without written approval from the Executive Director.

C. Any employee on an unpaid leave of absence shall have his/her vacation leave for the year pro-rated for the duration of the unpaid leave. Employees do not earn vacation leave for any overtime or while on a leave without pay status.

D. Unless extenuating circumstances exist, employees should schedule vacations in advance to ensure their leave requests can be approved. Requests can be denied based on business obligations. Unless extenuating circumstances exist, new employees should not request vacation leave during their first six months of employment. Changes in the scheduling of vacations will not be permitted without the prior approval of the supervisor. If advance notice is not possible, employees are expected to inform their supervisor at the earliest possible time. The supervisor may consider such an event to be an unexcused absence unless extenuating circumstances exist.

E. If, for any reason, an employee's vacation is canceled or not taken as scheduled, the vacation may be rescheduled at a time agreed upon by both the supervisor and employee.

F. An employee who is retiring or who has otherwise separated shall be entitled to the earned, unused vacation leave for the current year prorated upon the number of days worked in the calendar year in which the separation or retirement becomes effective and any unused vacation leave which may have been carried over from the preceding calendar year unless gross misconduct or no two (2) week notice is given.

J. A medical certification is required when a sick leave absence exceeds four (4) consecutive days. The medical certification must state when the employee is able to return to work and if there are any work limitations. The certification must be presented to the Human Resources Specialist or the Business Services Manager before the employee can report for duty. The Executive Director may waive the certification requirement due to special circumstances. During protracted periods of illness or disability of an employee, the Human Resources

Specialist may require interim reports on the condition of the patient from the attending physician and/or a Commission medical physician. Nothing contained herein shall prohibit the Executive Director or designee from requesting a medical certification when suspecting potential abuse.

- c. When the employee does not report to the Commission physician, as directed.

M. Once an employee exhausts his/her sick leave, the employee must use vacation and/or administrative leave. Once such leave is exhausted there is no entitlement to leave without pay. Employees do not earn sick leave while on an approved leave without pay. If employment is ended before an employee vests in sick leave, the employee is required to reimburse the Commission for any sick leave used at termination. When ending employment, reimbursement is required if an employee used any unearned leave advanced in the beginning of the calendar year.

N. Other than sick leave used for bereavement purposes if an employee is absent for reasons that entitle the employee to sick leave or the employee is on Workers' Compensation or Sick Leave Injury because of an injury sustained during his/her employment, the employee shall remain at his/her place of confinement during the period in which he/she is scheduled for work on the day(s) in questions, with the following exceptions:

2. To engage in the exercise of his/her right to vote or to attend religious services.

Until employees earn that leave, it will be considered to be advanced and unearned. New employees will not vest in any earned administrative leave until after six (6) consecutive months of employment. Unless the Executive Director grants special dispensation for new employees who have begun their employment within six months of the end of a calendar year, administrative leave must be used in the calendar year in which it's earned and may not be carried over to the next calendar year.

C. Any employee on an unpaid leave of absence shall have his/her administrative leave for the year pro-rated for the duration of the unpaid leave. Employees do not earn administrative leave for any overtime or while on a leave without pay status.

D. Whenever an employee uses administrative leave, advance approval should be obtained unless an emergency exists. In cases of emergency where advance approval is not obtained, employees are expected to inform their supervisors at the earliest possible time.

E. Administrative leave will be charged in thirty (30) minute increments.

F. Employees do not receive payment for any earned but unused administrative leave when their employment is ended.
